

HIGHLIGHTS OF SPECIAL EVENTS

Parents and Students: The dates that are listed below are part of the Religious Education program along with classes and weekly worship at Mass. Families should make every attempt to attend these events.

Upcoming Events

Holy Mackerel,
Take a Look At This

- September 20th - Catechetical Sunday. Mass for all teachers at 8:30.
- November 21st & 22nd - Bake Sale following all Masses
- November 29th - ADVENT Begins
- December 6th - Christmas Show PK/K, 1A & 1B
- December 13th - Christmas Show 4th & 5th Grades
- December 20th - Christmas Show 2nd & 3rd Grades
- December 25th - Merry Christmas. Holy day of obligation.
- January 1st - Happy New Year. Holy day of obligation. Mary, mother of God
- February 17th - Ash Wednesday (LENT begins)
- March 4th - Religious Education Fair - should we hold it Bi-annually instead?
- March 26th - Living Stations (7:30) Performed by several of our high school students. A powerful, moving experience that shouldn't be missed.

Holy Week - This is the holiest time in our church and every effort should be made to attend these events. Experience for yourself the magnitude of God's love for us through Christ's Passion on the Cross.

- March 28th - Palm Sunday
- April 1st - Holy Thursday (7:00)
- April 2nd - Stations at cemetery (10:00 a.m.)
- April 2nd - Lord's Passion (7:00)
- April 3rd - Easter Vigil (7:30)
- April 4th - Easter Sunday

REGISTRATION DATES (PLEASE sign up during one of these 8 times)

- March 20th & 21st - Religious Education registration for 2009/2010 year. Following all 4 Masses.
- March 27th & 28th - Religious Education registration for 2009/2010 year. Following all 4 Masses.
- May 13th - Holy day of obligation. Ascension Thursday.
- May 16th - May Procession.